

PUBLIC NOTICE
NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY
FAIRVIEW INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS

Students, their families, employees and potential employees of the Fairview Schools are hereby notified that the Fairview Independent School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, religion, marital status, sex or disability in employment, vocational programs, or activities as set forth in compliance with federal and state statutes and regulations.

The Fairview Independent School District offers the following career and technical education programs for all students regardless of race, color, national origin, including those with limited English proficiency, sex or disability in grades 9-12.

Principles of Marketing, Travel and Tourism Marketing, and Digital Literacy. The following vocational school classes are available to students in grades 11-12:
Heating/Humidification; Cooling/Dehumidification; Refrigeration Fundamentals; Journeyman Preparation; Introduction to Computer aided Drafting; Basic Welding; Shielded Metal Arc Welding; Gas Metal Arc Welding; Oxy Fuel Systems; Construction I and II; Introduction to Architecture; CAD 100 Introduction to CAD; CAD 102 Drafting Fundamentals; Print Reading; and Medical Terminology.

Any person having inquiries concerning Fairview School's compliance with the Office of Civil Rights Law, Title VI, Title VII, Title IX and Section 504 is directed to contact Jackie Risdén-Smith, Fairview Board of Education, 2201 Main Street, WW, Ashland, Kentucky 41102, (606) 324-3877, who has been designated by Fairview to coordinate the district's efforts to comply with these regulations.

*Published on Fairview Independent Schools Website
July 19, 2018*